Continuation Sheet (PTO-303)

of Stoker et al.--February 18, 2003.

Application No.

First, Applicant argues in substance that the Rowland et al. reference is not a valid prior art reference against the present application. The Examiner refers Applicant to the MPEP 2136, which states in full "A person shall be entitled to a patent unless: (e) the invention was described in — (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for the purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language. Furthermore, a U.S. patent or patent application publication that claims the benefit of an earlier filing date under 35 U.S.C. 120 of a prior nonprovisional application would be accorded the earlier filing date as its prior art date under 35 U.S.C. 102 (e), provided the earlier-filed application properly supports the subject matter relied upon in any rejection in compliance with 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph. In other words, the subject matter used in the rejection must be disclosed in the earlier-filed application in compliance with 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, in order for that subject matter to be entitled to the earlier filing date under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) The Examiner maintains that Rowland et al. is entitled to the filing date

Second, the Rowland reference was initially applied in the non final rejection of the claims mailed on 2/14/2008. Applicant filed a reply on 6/17/2008. Applicant could have argued against the Rowland reference and pointed out that the CIP parent to Rowland was assigned to Dunn & Bradstreet. However, Applicant did not set forth such an argument until the after final response filed on 10/21/2008. At this stage, Applicant's response would require a new search and consideration. As such, the After final will not be entered. The rejection of the claims is maintained.
